Dear Mithun Raje,

Thank you for your email.

As author of the requested articles, you do not need to seek Elsevier's permission to include them in your thesis as it is part of the rights you retain as an Elsevier journal author.

If your thesis is being hosted online by your university, then the version you should include in your thesis should not be Elsevier’s PDF version but the Accepted Author Manuscript (“AAM”), it is the author’s version of the manuscript of an article that has been accepted for publication and which may include any author-incorporated changes suggested through the processes of submission processing, peer review, and editor-author communications. AAMs do not include other publisher value added contributions such as copy-editing, formatting, technical enhancements and (if relevant) pagination.

For further information on the rights you retain as an Elsevier journal author, please visit our web page http://www.elsevier.com/wps/find/authorsview.authors/copyright#rights

Yours sincerely,
