MAKING SENSE IN NINETEENTH-CENTURY BRITAIN: AFFINITIES OF THE PHILOSOPHY OF MIND, C.1820-1860

Thomas William Staley

A dissertation submitted to the faculty of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Science & Technology Studies

Joseph C. Pitt (chair)
Richard M. Burian
Mordechai Feingold
Ellsworth Fuhrman
Ann F. Laberge

January 20, 2004
Blacksburg, VA

Copyright 2004, Thomas W. Staley