Photovoltaics (PVs) are used throughout the community to provide a source of power. PVs are located on all community structures and are encouraged in new development.

Wind Generators are located throughout the community in suitable locations that take advantage of the wind.

Biomass that must be removed due to development is encouraged to be used on-site. Using the biomass for fuel wood is acceptable.

Hydroelectrical

- Not Applicable

Geothermal

- Not Applicable