Dedication

This work is dedicated to Carolynn,
my inspiration.
The author would like to thank the following people…

My mother, for instilling in me a sense of determination and dedication that has seen me through many hard times.

My father, for introducing me to the greatest profession, and supporting me through all academic and life pursuits.

Ron M. Kagawa, ASLA, for giving me the opportunity to pursue my academic career and become a true student of the profession.

Brian Kane, ASLA, for teaching me to always strive to uncover the true beauty of the landscape.

Patrick A. Miller, FASLA, for providing constant insight and urging me to always uncover the deeper meaning of the landscape.

The faculty of the Washington Alexandria Architecture Center, for reminding me that all truly successful designs are the result of a collaboration between landscape architecture and architecture.
