The Giant Dream Chamber
The Giant Dream Chamber

Ethan Pomerance

Thesis submitted to the faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Master of Architecture

Hans Rott, Chairman

Steve Thompson

Mark Schneider

August 21st, 2009

Blacksburg, Virginia

Dream Surrealism Unconscious Vault
The Giant Dream Chamber

Ethan Pomerance

Abstract

The Giant Dream Chamber is an underworld figure relieved by moonlight chanting Aperspectival intuition, the image arrives. Matter undresses, interiority silhouetted.
Acknowledgements

Thank you Steve for all of your guidance.

Thank you Hans for emboldening me to behold with my hands and eyes that phantasm that haunted me.

Thank you Mark for insisting that I find the thickness of daytime dream things.

Thank you Scott for introducing me to the American Spirit.

Thank you Frank for always challenging me.
Table of Contents

The Hokie And The Poppy

see attached video
DVD in library

Introduction

1

The Curated Imagination/Defense Room

2

Note: All images by author
Introduction

“Where did you buy all this stuff?”, my brother-in-law asked.

Imagination draws on that which can not be imagined. It imagines it.

The imagination makes through the hands, the eyes and the mind, all of which give it structure.

Images are living parts of the imagination.